U of Maine student challenges ROTC

A student in the Reserve Officers Training Corps at the University of Maine campus at Orono is fighting his dismissal from the campus military program. Neal Snow, who was fourth in command at the U of M ROTC program, is being dismissed from the program because he is gay. He had been in ROTC for six semesters when he told his commanders of his sexual orientation. "I'm tired of everything that's happening—the hiding, the lying, the stereotypes, the labels, homophobia, being alone, politicians, ignorance, and people telling me what I can and cannot do."

Administrators at the university are assisting Snow in his attempt to remain in ROTC and to challenge the military ban on gay and lesbian soldiers. John Diamond, representing the school administration, noted that the ROTC and U.S. Defense Department ban violates the University of Maine system's five-year-old policy against anti-gay bias. A conflict arises because the University of Maine is a Land Grant College, and as such are mandated to offer military training. School administrators will work with the National Association of Universities and Land Grant Colleges to pressure the Pentagon to change their exclusionary policy. ▼

Edmundston, Bathurst

NEW GROUPS FORM

Two AIDS support groups and one social group have been organized in two New Brunswick communities. In Madawaska County, EAGLES is Edmundston Area Gays & Lesbians for Equal Status. They provide a way for people to meet other members of the community in that area. NLN members showed their support for the new group when nine Lambs attended EAGLES' first potluck in August. The Edmundston group had another pot luck in October and they plan a Christmas party December 12. EAGLES, POB 611, Edmundston E3V 3L2, 506.753-5029

AIDS New Brunswick/SIDA Nouveau-Brunswick has started support groups in Bathurst and Edmundston for persons living with HIV/AIDS, their family members, and friends. For information about their meeting place and time, contact AIDS NB, 65 Brunswick Street, Fredericton E3B 1G5, 800.561-4009. ▼

Highlights

OF NLN'S OCTOBER BUSINESS MEETING

Seven members present; four of them Steering Committee members.

- ♦ The Nov. 1 target to set up the library collection in the computer will not be met. Work will continue on sorting books at "First Friday", Nov. 6.
 - ♦ Outreach: Still no reply from the Caribou Unitarian Church re: formation of parents & friends of gays & lesbians group. Since they are between ministers, Janet Pierce, a leader of the congregation, will be contacted.
 - ♦ The building fund is up $33.50 since September.
 - ♦ The United Way meets December 17, 3:30pm, at The Aroostook Medical Center; if two persons will represent NLN, they will be asked to question why the UW has not responded to two written inquiries re: their non-discrimination clause and whether it applies to gays and lesbians.
 - ♦ The tally of the demographics survey of members of the gay-lesbian bisexual community is complete and will be published in Communiqué.
 - ♦ Contributions of $100 each were sent to the Maine Coalition Against Hate, and Equal Protection/Portland who are fighting right-wing attempts to limit our civil rights at the state and city level.
 - ♦ A design of the first of quarterly newspaper ads was approved for placement in four Aroostook County weeklies. Continuation of the NLN ad in the student paper at the U of Maine at Presque Isle was approved.
 - ♦ ACAP Family Planning has solicited a contribution from NLN towards the ACAP Teen Conference, March 31, 1993. Appropriate brochures for distribution at the conference will be obtained; a $50 contribution was approved.
 - ♦ No application will be made this year for inclusion in the MaineShare campaign, which funds 19 statewide peace, social justice, and environmental groups.
 - ♦ Activities calendar
 - ☛ New - "First Friday" event - Fri, Nov 6, 7-9pm - help sort and arrange the books on the library shelves followed by a movie at 9pm;

A Portland statute which protects residents from discrimination based upon sexual orientation faces a repeal effort by a group of religious fundamentalists and ultra-conservatives. The November 3 vote will test the strength of not only the gay-lesbian community but of those who believe that discrimination against us is wrong. This battle is also being waged in Oregon and Colorado in statewide anti-gay referenda. Those who support the politics of bigotry and prejudice may initiate a similar statewide campaign in Maine. Our success or failure in Portland will affect everyone in Maine. This campaign is expensive. Send your contributions today to Equal Protection/Portland, POB 1894, Portland 04104.
